The Nouveau Musée National de Monaco invites us on The Magical Adventure, a journey into the extraordinary world of Victor Brauner, a Romanian and French artist of Jewish origin and one of the most distinctive figures in Surrealism who passed away sixty years ago. For the first time, a unique private collection assembled in the Principality is being unveiled to the public. You can read about the exhibition here, then take a look at the photographs that did not make it into the article.
